

October 2005

Brian R. Rountree
Curriculum Vitae

Office Address

Jesse H. Jones Graduate School of Management
Rice University
Houston, TX 77252

Home Address

3802 Oakland Court
Missouri City, TX 77459
(281)-778-8063

(713)-348-5328 (phone)
(713)-348-6331 (fax)
Email: rountree@rice.edu

ACADEMIC
EMPLOYMENT: Jesse H. Jones Graduate School of Management, Rice University
Assistant Professor of Management, Fall 2003
Teaching Financial Statement Analysis

Research

Financial Reporting with an emphasis on the influence of third parties on the financial reporting environments of firms, valuation, analysts.

EDUCATION: Kenan Flagler Business School, University of North Carolina, Ph.D., 2003.
Babson College, B.S., Magna Cum Laude, with Honors, 1996.

PAPERS “How Do Analyst Recommendations Respond to Major News?” (with Jennifer Conrad, Brad Cornell, and Wayne Landsman). Forthcoming in the Journal of Financial and Quantitative Analysis.

“The Response to Changes in Revenue Recognition Policies,” (Dissertation).

“An Analysis of Forced Auditor Rotation: The Case of Former Andersen Clients” (with Jennifer Blouin and Barbara Grein). Revise & Resubmit at The Accounting Review.

“An Empirical Analysis of Big N Auditor Switches” (with Wayne Landsman and Karen Nelson). First round at the Journal of Accounting Research.

“The Financial Reporting Environment Before and After a Change in Revenue Recognition,” sole authored.

“Do Investors Value Smooth Earnings?” (with George Allayannis and James Weston).

WORK-IN-
PROGRESS: “Earnings Management and the Evolution of Net Operating Assets,” (with Karen Nelson and Richard Price).

“Corporate Governance and Financial Reporting Reform in Mexico”

(with Richard Price and Francisco Roman).

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE: Price Waterhouse staff accountant 1996-1998.

PRESENTATIONS: 2002, AAA Annual Meeting, San Antonio, Texas. “How Do Analyst Recommendations Respond to Major News?”
2003, Stanford University, University of Michigan, Harvard Business School, University of Iowa, University of Illinois, University of Oregon, Northwestern University, Rice University, UC Berkeley Haas School of Business. “The Response to a Change in Revenue Recognition Policies” (job market paper).
2004, AAA Annual Meeting, Orlando, FL. Moderator.
2005, AAA Annual Meeting, San Francisco, CA. “An Empirical Analysis of of Big N Auditor Switches,” and Moderator.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES: Member: American Accounting Association.
Adhoc Referee, Journal of Finance, Journal of Financial and Quantitative Analysis, International Journal of Accounting, AAA Annual Meeting.

HONORS AND DISTINCTIONS: Deloitte & Touche Doctoral Fellowship 2001-2002.
Outstanding Non-Graduating Ph.D. Student of the Year 2002, selected by UNC Faculty.
Stanford Summer Camp participant, July 2001.
AAA Doctoral Consortium Fellow, June 2001.
FASB Ph.D. Program participant, July 2000.
Valedictorian, Babson College Class of 1996.
Member of the Constitution Athletic Conference All Scholastic Baseball Team, 1996.
Recipient of Presidential Scholarship from Babson College 1992-1996.